

SAT Services & Packages

Privates

$115/hour

These one-to-one private sessions offer the student the ability to progress at his or her own pace while building a trusting and comfortable rapport with the tutor. Due to this personal attention, the student's strong and weak points are targeted efficiently. Students are administered a simulated practice SAT about 4 weeks before test day to assess their progress.

We recommend at least 20 hours of Math and English prep for the first SAT and 8 hours of refreshers for additional tests.

SAT Final Review

$120/student

Get focused for test day by reviewing methods to tackle more complex problems, time-saving strategies and the most frequently asked questions on the SAT. Methods specific to each type of question are reviewed and mastered to give student control and confidence for test day.

Jan. SAT: Sun. Jan. 22, 2012 (4:00p - 7:30p)
Mar. SAT: Sun. Mar. 4, 2012 (4:00p - 7:30p)
May SAT: Sun. Apr. 29, 2012 (4:00p - 7:30p)
Jun. SAT: Sun. May 20, 2012 (4:00p-7:30p)

Small Groups

$1,400/student

This is an intensive 8-week course aimed at identifying and correcting weaknesses in a student's performance. Students meet twice a week, for both math and English (2 hours for each class). Classes are kept small (max 6 students) to enable students to get enough personal attention to master the methods and strategies. Students are administered a simulated practice SAT to assess their progress.

See our small group brochure for more information on the course and to see group dates & times.

The 3-DAY SAT Experience

$400/student

Learn all the methods and strategies needed to maximize SAT scores in this breakthrough 3-Day SAT course. Start Day 1 (Friday) with Math, Day 2 (Saturday) with Critical Reading and end Day 3 (Sunday) with Writing and stress management.

See our 3-DAY SAT Experience brochure for more information on the course and to see dates & times.
